Travel information to and from local airports

The nearest airport is Liverpool John Lennon Airport, 15 km from Liverpool city centre.

There is a direct bus service that operates from the airport to the city centre. The cost is £2.20

A taxi would cost approximately £25 to the city centre centre will take you about 20 minutes travel time.

Manchester Airport is about 60 km from Liverpool city centre

National Express Coach travel <http://coach.nationalexpress.com/> can be used to book coach travel to Liverpool. Ticket prices can vary but £7 is rough guide figure. This is for a single journey.

Train travel from Manchester Airport to Liverpool Lime Street Station (city centre) is frequent. Again ticket prices can vary but the guide figure is about £15 for a single journey.

Train and coach tickets can be booked in advance and Manchester Airport's website has lots of travel information. <http://www.manchesterairport.co.uk/to-and-from-the-airport/>

A taxi from Manchester to Liverpool costs in the region of £55 but do check with the driver first.

The course will start on Sunday afternoon. Exact time will be given later.

The course will run at the venue on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning.

Wednesday morning will be held at the Tate Gallery <http://www.tate.org.uk/visit/tate-liverpool> with a trip on the Mersey Ferry in the afternoon. <http://www.merseyferries.co.uk/> (The cost of the ferry will be £7.50)

You will have to bring your own tablet. We don't provide tablets.

Before the course you will receive information about preparatory activities and a list of apps to be downloaded.

Accommodation

You have to take care yourself of booking the hotel. You can make booking directly to the hotel or through booking sites like booking.com, tripadvisor, expedia, trivago etc. Booking sites offer search for hotels as well as <http://www.visitliverpool.com/accommodation>

Also airbnb might be an option (see <https://www.airbnb.com>).

Important: check the distance from the course venue and possibilities for public transport before you make your booking.
