

Future skills – schools defending the planet against the climate change (7 days) Course in Porto, Portugal

Programme of the course (changes are possible)

SUNDAY: introduction and preparation for the course

- Welcome and official opening
- Introduction to the course programme
- Getting to know each other
- Expectations: what do you want to learn?

MONDAY: a look to the situation right now

Morning:

- A new approach to the wicked problems in the world, short introduction
- Futures sciences, what is it?
- Megatrends: game with the megatrend-cards

Afternoon:

- Weak signals and black swans: where to hunt them, different signals, humans in the future etc., group work
- Reflection: best tips to the use at the school

TUESDAY: creative things to handle the future

Morning:

- How to create future images
- Thing from the future -game

Afternoon:

- A postcard to the future, individual work
- Future design, group work or individual work
- Reflection: best tips to the use at the school

WENDESDAY: background information for the development work of the school, society, class etc with the perspective to the future

Morning:

- Future table
- How to make future images with the future table, group work
- Future images of the children and young people, a short look

Afternoon:

- Making a scenario on the base of the future table, group work
- Discussions about the scenarios
- Reflection: positive and negative future images, best tips for the use

THURSDAY: future guidance, practical ways to present it for the whole school or other big groups

Morning:

- Principles for a future camp, “take the future in your own hands”
- Building a future camp, all together

Afternoon:

- Testing our future camp, all together
- Reflections: how to modify, where to use

FRIDAY: how to process climate change and other wicked problems at school

Morning:

- We have all right to positive future images, a short introduction and discussion
- Principles of teaching the climate change at school, discussion
- Future skills in a larger scale, introduction

Afternoon:

- Practical ways to teach the climate change and develop the future skills in the same time, group work
- Final reflection of the week, how to continue
- Certificates

SATURDAY: A whole day trip to Porto and the surroundings to enjoy!